Elvis Achelpohl

bnim ASSOCIATE | ARCHITECTURE

Elvis Achelpohl is an Associate in BNIM's Kansas City office who demonstrates significant leadership through his projects and firm contributions as well as through his involvement in academia and with the artist community. To all of his efforts, Elvis brings a truly unique voice and perspective that are tied directly to his passion for the arts. He has served as a key team member on a number of important projects, including the Princeton University Lewis Center for the Arts, the REACH Expansion at the John F. Kennedy Center, the 10th & Wyandotte Garage, and Tarrant County Community College. Recently, Elvis has been contributing to BNIM's historic preservation and adaptive reuse portfolio through his work on the West Bottoms Flats and the Zhou B Art Center in Kansas City, Missouri. Outside of the office, Elvis also serves on the Charlotte Street Foundation Board, maintains long-term involvement with the BNIM K-State architecture studio, and serves as a frequent guest critic at the Kansas City Design Center.
