Jason Kruse AIA LEED AP BD+C

bnim ASSOCIATE | ARCHITECTURE

Jason is a project architect who is committed to the connection between people and place. He understands that listening and being mindful of the project needs will help establish the goals that should guide the design process through construction. In addition, he believes it takes an interdisciplinary team to create innovative and human-centered design solutions to meet those goals.

While at BNIM, Jason has become a trusted leader and team member, recognized by peers and clients as a knowledgeable voice and a skilled hand for any project effort. Jason has played a significant role in the design, documentation, and implementation of numerous projects, including an addition to the Seamans Center for the Engineering Arts and Science at the University of Iowa, a new Psychological and Brain Sciences building at the University of Iowa, a complete interior renovation of the Des Moines Community Playhouse, and most recently, the design of the Harkin Institute for Public Policy and Citizen Engagement on Drake University campus.
